

2009 PINELLAS COASTAL CLEANUP

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE OCEAN CONSERVANCY
INTERNATIONAL COASTAL CLEANUP CAMPAIGN

CROSS BAYOU CANAL & JOE'S CREEK CLEANUP

SATURDAY OCTOBER 3, 2009

Bring or borrow a canoe or kayak.

No sea-legs?

We still need your help on land!

Map, directions, & info on next page.

Event Schedule

7:30am - 8:00am: volunteer sign in & safety tips

8:00am - 11:00am: trash collection

11:00am - 11:30am: return to registration area & sort recyclables

11:30am - 12:30pm: lunch, exhibitor social, & raffle giveaways

*must be present to win***

Register online by September 11th.

Use the link below.

www.pinellascounty.org/volserv/Events.htm

Life Jackets are required for this event.

BROUGHT TO YOU BY:

SATURDAY OCTOBER 3, 2009 8:00AM-12:30PM

PINELLAS COUNTY AND KEEP PINELLAS BEAUTIFUL PARTNER FOR LOCAL PARTICIPATION IN THE INTERNATIONAL COASTAL CLEANUP
OCEAN CONSERVANCY CAMPAIGN

We'll be launching from the Pinellas County Property at the end of 78th Street N across from Wagon Wheel Flea Market. Head south from Park Blvd onto 78th Street N and enter the gate at the end of the street.

What to bring: Comfortable clothing, closed toed shoes, work gloves, hat, sunscreen, and a camp chair or towel to sit on during lunch

What we have: Trash grabbers, bags, gloves, a map, and water.
We're providing lunch and a free drawing for raffle prizes!

Sponsored By

Massage Envy of Largo

Sweetwater Kayaks

Waste Management

American Consulting Engineers of Florida, Inc.

Dr. Edward B. Busch

The Pier Aquarium

Papa John's Pizza

St. Petersburg Audubon Society

United States Coast Guard Auxiliary

Clearwater Marine Aquarium

Seminole Lanes

Volunteers under the age of 18 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian or a closely supervised youth group. Groups must preregister by calling the Pinellas County Volunteer Services Program at 464-3945.

Life Jackets are required for this event.